

INNOVATION IS A TEAM SPORT: HOW THE MARINE CORPS TACKLES EVERYDAY PROBLEMS

Last Modified on 02/19/2020 3:40 pm EST

This session will give an inside look at a partnership between Marine Corps Installations Command's (MCICOM) Installation neXt team and Marine Corps Community Services (MCCS) as they look at how Marine's interact with the Individual Issue Facility (IIF). This panel will include leaders from both organizations as they discuss how this new partnership advances innovation within our Marine Corps communities.
