

THE FIRST BLANKET INTERGOVERNMENTAL SUPPORT AGREEMENT: HOW THE ALAMO AREA COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS AND JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO TOOK PARTNERSHIPS TO A WHOLE NEW LEVEL

Last Modified on 11/05/2021 11:08 am EDT

The blanket IGSA between Joint Base San Antonio and the Alamo Area Council of Governments, the first such agreement in Air Force history, is now two years old. Since its signing, JBSA and AACOG have undertaken task orders as diverse as the demolition of housing in an airfield clear zone and providing shuttle services for wounded warriors at the Brooke Army Medical Center. This session will present lessons learned, both positive and negative, and give a glimpse into the many diverse new opportunities JBSA and AACOG are currently exploring.
