

PUTTING NEW TECHNOLOGY AND TRAINING INTO ACTION: A BREAKTHROUGH PARTNERSHIP AMONG ELLSWORTH AIR FORCE BASE, THE NATIONAL SECURITY INNOVATION NETWORK, AND THE SOUTH DAKOTA SCHOOL OF MINES & TECHNOLOGY

Last Modified on 11/05/2021 1:20 pm EDT

Ellsworth AFB, NSIN and SD School of Mines, as well as several other academic institutions nationwide, have come together to collaborate on innovative solutions to multiple local, regional, and potential Air Force-wide challenges. Not only do problems get solved, but relationships are made and strengthened, leading to even more synergy of effort. Learn how we've leveraged problem sets from concept to reality using a variety of avenues.
