

BUILDING BETTER COMMUNITIES THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS: HOW THIS MODEL CAN WORK FOR YOU

Last Modified on 11/02/2022 1:01 pm EDT

How can installations, nonprofit partners, and communities work together to best support military families? The National Military Family Association (NMFA), in conversation with Leidos, Barry Robinson Center, Jamestown, Virginia 4-H, and installation leaders will discuss how NMFA's Operation Purple program can serve as the gold-star standard for both installations and partners around the country. You'll leave with inspiring new ideas on how your installation can work with local and national partners to build strong, connected communities that move with military families wherever the military sends them.

2022_ADC_PPT_pictures.pptx
